How to find us

The Jing Institute is beautifully situated in the North Laines of Sunny Brighton's town centre. This is a very convenient 5-10 minute walk from the train and bus stations, and from free street parking. Further details are below. To find us on Google Maps, please click here:

By Train

One of the best ways to get to us here at Jing is by Train. The new Jing venue is a 5-10 minute walk from the main Brighton train station, simply walk out of the main train station entrance and head down Queens road, take a left onto Church street, and your 4th right is Bond Street.

Trains from London Victoria and London Bridge arrive in Brighton every 10-15 minutes, all up to dates schedule information can be found at:
<http://www.nationalrail.co.uk/>

By Car

Head from the M23 towards Brighton town centre, and sea front via the A23. As you get to Grand Parade (on the A23) there is a large roundabout with the Brighton Pavilions straight in front of you, as you come around the roundabout do not go straight on past Pavilion, but take the first exit(right) up Church Street. Then take your fourth left called Portland Street, then take a left onto North Street, and left onto Bond Street – we are 28/29. The area is full of one-way streets, so please remember to bring a map with you!

There are loading bays directly outside the venue if you need to drop off any heavy equipment. There is NO free parking on Bond Street.

Parking in Brighton

I have attached a document outlining the free areas of parking in Brighton – this area is a convenient 5-10 minute walk from the new centre.

There is also a free park and ride at Withdean, this is just off the A23 as you enter Brighton. For further details please click here:
